Who's next? We don't believe we have an honest mayor whom is forthcoming. Spins and confusion has been the tactics while many were fooled we always knew. After the Broward Commission vote to deny the Diplomat LAC the house of cards at Hallandale Beach city hall starting coming down. Another great concern to many residents is the tax dollars we are paying the Sun Times without community representation, more a publicity tool used by the few favorites at city hall to show residents how great they are. But yet this newspaper has yet to show the opposing points of view from many residents case in point those whom were opposed to the Diplomat LAC. Still more will be uncovered as you will see and the true colors of the so called righteous will be unveiled. Arrogance and ego trips are obvious and predictable and a lack of concern for our daily quality of lives will some day soon be the governing light. We know who they are and they do too. No spins or coincidence will let us forget. We are one united voice and vote taking one out at a time. Let the city show us a sign of good faith by reducing the water and sewer rates that we saw jump over 35 percent in 2009 and let that begin to translate to lower costs for all, including lower montly maintenane fees. We wait, we listen and watch as we have done till now
